SENT INSULTING NOTE GOT AN ULTIMATUM

Carranza Sent a Note to Washington Sunday Acknowledging Responsibility for the Carrizal Attack and Said He Ordered It—Wilson Sends Him an Ultimatum and Upon His Answer, Which Is Expected Hourly, War Depends—High Officials Believe War Is Certain—Pershing's Men Are Ready for Any Action—Troops From the North Are Coming. Villa Has Made Friends With Carranza and Is Inducing His Men to Join the Carranza Army.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 26.—General Carranza has accepted full responsibility for the Carrizal massacre.
In a note made public here Sunday he informs the state department that he ordered it and that he stands by it. In short, General Carranza has told the United States government that he has begun war against the American forces in Mexico.

President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing replied to the Carranza note demanding the immediate release of the prisoners taken at Carrizal and also for a definite expression as to the future course of the defacto government.

The words of the reply received only one interpretation here, namely, that the administration is making a play for time, necessitated by the fact that the militia is not ready for service and that the regular army can not move for the occupation of Northern Mexico until it has this support.

The gravity of the situation was emphasized last night when President Wilson called in the ranking democratic and republican members of the senate and house committees which have to do with foreign affairs.

Senator Stone, after the conference, told newspaper men that he regarded the future with pessimism, so far as the continued future friendly relations of the two countries are concerned. Intervention or war, he said, seemed inevitable now.

PERSHING IS READY.

(By Associated Press.)
El Paso, Texas, June 26.—General Pershing's erstwhile punitive expedition in Mexico, 12,000 strong, is ready for any action if action is necessary. The southern outpost, according to the best information today, is near El Valle, fifty miles from Colonia Dublan, the Mexican base. Reports from the front indicate the highest morale among the men. The equipment was put in the best condition, the horses and mules tested, the big motor trucks were loaded with supplies, and are lined up ready for the advance. Every empty motor truck at Columbus has been sent to the front for infantry transport, and no wounded or incapacitated man is with the force. It was feared today that some action by subordinate Mexican commanders might precipitate hostilities before the Washington-Mexico exchanges were completed.

Nominee of Progressive Party Declines to Accept and Urges Party to Support Hughes.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Ill., June 26.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt in a letter read this morning to the progressive national committee finally declined to accept the party's presidential nomination. In the letter the colonel strongly urges that the Bull Moose party support the nominee of the republican party, Justice Hughes.

When you reflect that putting the clock ahead for more daylight means going to bed in the warm hours of the evening and getting up when it is coolest to sleep, it does not seem so attractive.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

HANGS BY A THREAD.

Washington, May 26.—Whether war shall exist between the United States and Mexico depends on the formal declaration by Carranza, which is expected hourly in response to the note sent yesterday. The note also demands the release of the seventeen prisoners at Chihuahua, although Captain Morey's letter indicated the Americans were responsible to some extent for the Carrizal clash, but this has no particular bearing on the present situation. No plans have been made for President Wilson to address a joint session of congress.

Note Was Delivered.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 26.—The latest note to Carranza reached Mexico City last night, according to a cable from Special Agent Rodgers, who delivered it. There was nothing in it to indicate how the demand for the release of the seventeen prisoners should be carried out, and the declaration of policy by Carranza should be received, or whether a reply would be expected.

To Attack Americans.

(By Associated Press.)
Chihuahua City, June 26.—The Americans evacuated San Geronimo and Bacinava under General Pershing's repositioning plan and General Trevino immediately occupied the towns, issuing strict orders that any attempt of the Americans to return south must be prevented.

Villa Joins Carranza.

(By Associated Press.)
El Paso, Texas, June 26.—(Bulletin.)—Reliable reports say that Villa, who until recently was at Santa Rosalia, has reached an agreement with Carranza and is inducing his followers to join the army.

Offers of Mediation.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 24.—Formal inquiry of six Latin-American republics was made to Ambassador Arredondo today whether Carranza would accept mediation offers.

New York, June 26.—Movement of the National Guard from the eastern department toward the border begins today. Fourteen regiments, including all branches of the service, are under orders from General Wood to start before night.

NO VERDICT IN HARRISON CASE

Jury Has Been Delivering Over 24 Hours and No Verdict Has Yet Been Reached.

Fort Worth, Texas, June 27.—The jury which tried pretty Katherine Harrison of Fort Worth, the 16-year-old bride, for the murder of W. L. Warren, who had wronged her, seems to be unable to agree on a verdict. They have been deliberating for over 24 hours and there is little chance for a verdict soon, according to the foreman of the jury. In the judge's charge yesterday he told the jury that the limit should be life imprisonment and that if the evidence showed that the wrong Warren had done her had caused her to be temporarily insane, to return a verdict of not guilty.

ACTION NOW HINGES ON RELEASE OF PRISONERS

If the Prisoners Taken at Carrizal Are Not Released by Thursday at the Very Latest, Relations Will Be Severed and Military Operations Will Begin—Every Day Finds the American Army Better Equipped for Service—Mexican Troops Near Naco, Arizona, Are Active and the Americans Are Entrenching—The Mexican Army There Plans to Sweep Across the Border, Capture and Loot Bisbee—Carranza Troops Are Still Pouring Into Northern Mexico—General Funston Is Keeping a Close Watch on the Situation and Getting Ready for an Efficient Invasion.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 27.—There were clear indications today that if the American cavalrymen captured at Carrizal were not released in forty-eight hours action would be taken by the United States. The impression prevailed in official circles that President Wilson would not wait beyond Thursday, and possibly tomorrow afternoon for a definite reply from Carranza. President Wilson's first step, should he decide to force the issue, will be to go before a joint session of congress. Every day's delay in what seems an inevitable break in the relations, sees the army in position for swift action that may follow. It was indicated that if sufficient troops had been on the border, a time limit for the release of the prisoners would have been sent in the first place.

Filibusters Stopped.

(By Associated Press.)
Nogales, June 27.—A heavily armed filibustering expedition, organized to cross the line at Sasaba and bring back an automobile seized by Mexican authorities, was broken up last night by military men. They were stopped with two companies of infantry formed in line across the road.

WILSON DECIDED ON T. W. GREGORY

(By Associated Press.)

12 AMERICANS KILLED 17 CAPTURED IN CLASH

The Worst Clash Since the Trouble Began, Occurred Yesterday Between U. S. Soldiers and Carranza Troops in Which 12 Americans Were Killed and 17 Captured, Together With Their Horses and Rifles—The Mexicans Lost 14 Killed and 30 Wounded—The Interpretation of the Affair to Be Given by General Pershing Will Decide the Course of the President and Congress—The Mexicans Lay Blame on Americans and Call on Secretary Lansing for Explanations—One American Killed and Three Wounded at Naco, Arizona.

(By Associated Press.)
El Paso, Texas, June 22.—The Americans lost twelve dead, including their commander, and seventeen prisoners, while fourteen Mexicans were killed and thirty wounded in the Carrizal battle, according to the Mexican official announcement today, which said the complete details had been received. The Americans removed their wounded but left the dead which were counted on the field. The name of the American commander is still unknown. The Mexicans claimed they captured twenty horses and twenty rifles. Mexican officials said two additional trains had been loaded from the Juarez garrison and were ready to move south on orders.

UP TO PERSHING.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 22.—Gen. Pershing's interpretation of yesterday's fight with Carranza troops near Carrizal probably will determine largely whether the incident will cause immediate war. If it develops the Americans were attacked to enforce Carranza's orders, President Wilson probably will accept it as an act of war. If the fight is an answer to Carranza's note, there is little doubt but that President Wilson will recommend that congress declare war.

MEXICO RED HOT.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 22.—Ambassador Arredondo called on Secretary of State Lansing today asking for an explanation of the American troops approaching Carrizal, also seeking an explanation of the report that General Pershing had occupied the towns of Casas Grandes and Nueva Casas Grandes, saying such would be construed as open hostility. Secretary Lansing had no official information.

ONE MORE KILLED.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Electric Motor and Machines Are Being Installed in the Manual Training Department.

Announcement was made this morning that a large shipment of supplies for the manual training department of the Bryan High School had been received and was today being installed by Prof. J. L. Reese, who is at the head of this department.

The shipment includes a brand new three-horsepower motor, a band saw, a joiner and several other pieces of machinery which will tend to make this department one of the best equipped in the State. Much interest is being displayed by the students and professors in this department and the new equipment will place the Bryan school second to none with machinery to teach this branch of the school work.

works, fired on members of the Fourteenth Infantry.

New Version of Fight.

(By Associated Press.)
El Paso, Texas, June 22.—A new version of the Carrizal fight was brought by a Mexican who was in Villa Ahumada yesterday, who said General Gomez knew the Americans were coming and sent a courier asking that they withdraw. When they persisted in coming, Gomez dug a large pitfall several hundred feet long over the Americans' trail, covering it with brush. As the Americans rode into it the horses threw off the riders, and then, the Mexican asserted, the Carranzistas from ambush raked the Americans with a machine gun. The Americans withdrew to reorganize and seventeen prisoners were captured when they fell in the ditch. The encounter was started again in which General Gomez and the Americans were killed. The Mexican confirmed the other reports that forty Americans were dead.

Pershing Not Advised.

(By Associated Press.)
San Antonio, Texas, June 22.—General Pershing reported to General Funston today that he had not received a report of the Carrizal fight, but on information sent him he had sent two squadrons of the Eleventh Cavalry to get in touch with the Tenth, which was engaged. Until Pershing reports fully, there will be no special orders.

Works Wants Intervention.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 22.—Senator Works of California again introduced his intervention resolution in the senate today, giving notice that unless the foreign relations committee acted soon, he would move to take it out of its hands.

Morey Was in Command.

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, N. M., June 22.—Capt. Lewis S. Morey, a former Texan, is reported to have been in command of the Tenth Cavalry detachment which engaged the Mexicans at Carrizal.

BOHEMIAN GIRL IS VICTIM OF BRUTE

Nine Year Old Child Is Assaulted by Negro Boy Fifteen Years Old on Minter Springs Road.

Considerable excitement was caused about one and one-half miles south of College yesterday afternoon when it was reported that a negro boy 15 years old had attacked and assaulted a Bohemian girl only 9 years old. The horrible affair occurred on a small branch just a short distance off the Minter Springs road. The negro boy, whose name was given as Lewis Parks, was arrested by Sheriff T. C. Nunn soon after the occurrence and was lodged in the Brazos county jail. The fact that the father of the young girl was gone from home at the time is probably the reason that summary violence was not issued to the negro brute.

From the story told there were quite a number of children down on the branch playing and the negro approached them and after getting the child away from the rest of the crowd accomplished what has already been told. The young victim of the attack is reported to be doing well and in a short time will be all right again.

LOCAL UNIONS HAVE BANQUET

Dellwood Park Is Scene of Much Merriment for Union Men and Their Families—Plenty to Eat.

A crowd of union men with their families estimated at from 500 to 600 people, gathered last night at beautiful Dellwood Park for their annual picnic and banquet. The park, which was well lighted and with the natural decorations ordered by nature was a scene of beauty from one end to the other, but the most beautiful place in the enclosure were the long and well filled tables where the crowd gathered about 8:30 to partake of one of the best fried chicken dinners that could be imagined. The chicken was there and plenty of it, salads of every known kind, cakes that were baked in the homes of the men who carry on the commerce of the city and, in fact, everything that is needed to complete a good wholesome meal.

Speeches were made by County Judge J. T. Maloney, County Attorney Lamar Bethea and District Attorney W. C. Davis. Each of the speeches was along the line of union strength and tended to show what could be accomplished by men working as a body instead of as individuals. Much enthusiasm and cheering was displayed and all present declare that the addresses by the three able men mentioned above were inspiring and well delivered.

After the speech making other amusement was sought, dancing and games were indulged in to make merriment of the crowd. At 11 o'clock the crowd disbanded and each and every one present will look forward to another such occasion.

The committees in charge are loud in their praise of the Bryan and College Interurban management for their excellent car service and for the use of the park.

WOMAN MURDERED WITH CHILD IN ARMS

Negro Man Shoots Father-in-Law and Runs Wife Down With Weapon and Killed Her.

The most horrible murder that has been committed in Brazos County for many months occurred yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock on the Brad Williams place, which is about 13 miles southeast of Bryan, when Jack Childs shot his father-in-law, Henry Welch, and then running his wife, Mary Childs, down through a field shot her with their six months old baby in her arms, killing her instantly. Welch was shot twice through the body, one bullet going through his hand and then through his abdomen, the other entering his chest high up and passing entirely through his body. At an early hour this morning he was still alive but physicians and the sheriff say that it is impossible for him to ever regain consciousness. The wife, Mary Childs, was shot entirely through the body twice, one bullet passing through her heart, and she died instantly.

From the story of Childs it is brought out that another negro some weeks ago got to fooling with his business affairs at their home, which is on the C. L. Eden farm about eight miles from the scene of the killing, and that about two weeks ago his wife left him and, taking their three children, went to her father's. About a week ago Childs went to his father-in-law's house and got the two older children and yesterday morning he returned the second time for his wife and their baby to return home and live with him, explaining that their crop was in good condition and that they had plenty to live happily on, and that he had settled matters with the other man. His wife refused to return with him, and her father, Henry Welch, took a hand in the affair and told him that she should not go with him. The shooting of the older man followed and while in progress the wife jumped through a window with the baby in her arms and ran. Childs overtook her after a chase of about 300 yards and without even speaking a word shot her with the above results and she fell to the ground dead without ever uttering a word.

A telephone message was received by Sheriff T. C. Nunn immediately after the shooting and he left at once with deputies and found upon his arrival the woman lying on her face in the mud with the baby playing beside her; the old man was gasping for breath. As soon as a little attention could be given the victims of the

$15,000 COUNTRY CLUB FOR BRYAN

Organization Is Being Perfected That Will Give Bryan One of Best Country Clubs in Texas.

Quite a number of representative business men of the City of Bryan met yesterday afternoon in the offices of Doremus, Butler & Henderson and went into a temporary organization for the purpose of building a $15,000 Country Club. Mr. J. W. Batts was elected temporary chairman and Mr. Jordan Lawler was elected temporary secretary of the organization. Committees were appointed to solicit members for the new organization and much interest was displayed by all those present.

It is the purpose of this organization, which has not yet been officially named, to purchase 100 acres of land, which has already been surveyed and lies to the right of the Bryan and College road just across from the main bridge opposite Dellwood Park, to build for the citizenship of the city a Country Club second to none in Texas. There will be thirty acres of the plot under water for fishing purposes, $5000 of the proposed amount to be expended will be put into a club house. The club house will be equipped with everything that tends to make pleasure for its members. Pool tables, bowling alleys, a gymnasium, a swimming pool, hot and cold tubs, shower baths and a dozen other things. A golf course, tennis courts, a modern driveway for cars and other vehicles, and, the promoters say, there will be nothing left undone to make things complete. The main entrance is to be located in convenient walking distance of the Dellwood station on the Bryan and College Interurban. The membership committee started work this morning and it is stated that every citizen of Bryan who is worthy of membership is invited to join and if the committee fails to see you and you are interested and want Bryan to be up-to-date with a first-class Country Club, you should see them. Another meeting to hear reports from the committees will be held next Monday afternoon at the place of the first meeting.

BURNS PROVE FATAL.

Nellie Harris, colored, the 15-year-old adopted daughter of Loula Harris, who was burned last Friday afternoon in the yard of her home, died yesterday. The girl was carrying a can of gasoline in the back yard and fell close to a wash kettle where there was a fire. The gasoline exploded and she was so fearfully burned that death resulted.

GERMANS REPULSED IN MOUNTTEUT

A WAR-BORN WORLD BENEFIT.

An editorial in the July Woman's Home Companion says:

"The war has wrought one benefit in the world at least—it has given a new birth to thrift. Prime ministers are preaching this virtue now, as well as economists, and courts are setting the example for cottages. In this country, also, there is hardly any household to which the war, in its present effects or its ultimate possibilities, has not given a new dignity to a family savings account."

deadly weapon a chase was started for the murderer and he was found just after dark in custody of E. U. Peters, justice of the peace at Harvey, and was later brought to the Brazos County jail and locked up.

The weapon used was a 38-40 Colts six-shooter and only four shots were fired.

MISS BESSIE BELL LAWLESS.

Beautiful Young Girl Is Called by Death.

On Sunday afternoon as the shadows of evening deepened into night, the soul of Bessie Bell Lawless took its flight from this earth into the great eternity beyond. She had not been well for some weeks, having had several attacks of malaria, which finally developed into jaundice.

Bessie Bell Lawless was born June 14, 1902, and died June 18, 1916, making her 14 years and 4 days of age.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Lula Thurman. She leaves a mother and two brothers, Aubrey and Cody, to mourn her loss. Bessie was born and spent her infancy and childhood in the home of her grandfather, C. L. Tobias, deceased, thus endearing her life to every member of that family. She was a pet of them all. Besides relatives she leaves a host of mourning friends, both young and old.

"None knew her but to love her, None named her but to praise."

To those bereaved, no words of comfort can heal their broken hearts. The joy, the laughter, the music Bessie made will be greatly missed. The organ will be silent now and no more will her songs ring with gladness through that home, but we must remember, God rules the universe, and often we cannot understand His ways, but we know it draws heaven closer when we have a precious treasure there.

"There is a Reaper whose name is Death,
And with his sickle keen,
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath
And the flowers that grow between."

"Shall I have naught that is fair?"
said he;
"Have naught but the bearded grain;
Though the breath of these flowers is sweet to me,
I will give them all back again."

He gazed at this flower with tearful eyes,
He kissed its drooping leaves.
It was for the Lord of Paradise,
He bound her with his sheaves.

"My Lord has need of this flower gay,"
The Reaper said, and smiled:
Dear token of the earth is she
Where He was once a child.

The loved ones gave in tears and pain,
The flower they did so love;
But they well know they shall find her again,
In the fields of light above.

Then, not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The Reaper came that day:
'Twas only an angel visited that home
And took sweet Bessie away.
—One Who Loved Her.

ARRANGING FOR BIG BARBECUE.

(From Thursday's Daily)

H. S. Stasney started this morning perfecting arrangements for a big barbecue and picnic to be held on the 13th of next month. The affair is to be had under the supervision of the C. S. P. S. lodge and will be held at the Bohemian Hall, about two miles southeast of College. Just as soon as arrangements are completed The Eagle will publish more of the details of the affair. It is planned to have all the county candidates there to tell the voters why they should be elected. The entire citizenship of Brazos County is invited to take part.

GUARD OF 3 STATES ORDERED TO MOVE

Commander in Each State Was Notified by War Department to Entrain Quickly for Border.

Washington, June 23.—Orders to the National Guard of Missouri, Kansas and California to be ready to entrain for the Mexican border as soon as possible, were dispatched Thursday by the war department.

These guardsmen will be the first to go in response to General Funston's call for additional men to strengthen his border patrol. Officials would not indicate when marching orders might go to the contingents of other states.

Secretary Baker announced that the orders for movement of the forces of the three states had been sent to the commanders of the western and central departments of the army. He said the department had no reports as to when the contingents would be ready to start.

BEER SUPPLY IS SHORT IN GERMANY

Barley Supply for Beer Cut 50 Per Cent—People Are Beginning to Use Soft Drinks.

(From Thursday's Daily)

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) Berlin, June 21.—War which has worked so many changes in the daily habits of the Germans, has now conspired with war weather to induce the Germans to drink "soft drinks." Bottles of lemon sour, ginger ale, cream soda and other beverages included under the generic name of "pop" in the United States, are beginning to make their appearance on shelves and bars formerly devoted to beer, and the thirsty people are drinking them, not from choice, but because they have to.

It is no longer possible to make enough beer to meet even fairly modest demands of the reduced population. The majority of the larger beer gardens will not be opened at all this summer, and for some weeks it has been no unusual thing to find some of Berlin's biggest restaurants and beer halls without a drop of beer early in the evening of warm days. The sale of beer to households in containers charged with carbonic acid gas has been discontinued, and only favored old customers can still get bottled beer.

Bavaria, the greatest beer-drinking country of the world, where many a solid citizen normally drinks one to two gallons daily, and where the great beer halls are filled at almost all hours of the day, is in a still worse plight. The time in which beer may be sold has been steadily shortened, and now there has come an order permitting saloons, beer halls, etc., to sell beer only from 10 to 12, 2 to 4 and after 9 o'clock at night. Exceptions are made in the case of beer dispensed in factories to their workers, and by farmers to their help. No beer whatever may be sold locally until after the wants of the Bavarian soldiers have been supplied.

The scarcity is, of course, due to the fact that the empire has had to limit strictly the amount of barley which can be turned into malt. This amount has been fixed at 50 per cent of the normal amount, but brewers interviewed by the Associated Press correspondent said they were not able to obtain even this amount. An unforeseen inroad has further been made into the available amount of barley by the fact that the shortage of coffee has required the roasting of great quantities of barley as a substitute.

The government has granted the brewers permission to malt in the second (current) quarter of the year the full quota of barley allowed them for the third quarter. This will rob hot summer days of some of their terror, but even at best, the supply will be utterly inadequate.

OUTNUMBERED BUT STOOD FIVE HOURS

Columbus, N. M., June 23.—The troop of the Tenth Cavalry which clashed with Carranzistas Wednesday at Carrizal held the field for five hours before retreating, although they were outnumbered five to one, according to unofficial reports received here. The reports said that the Americans only withdrew when heavy Mexican reinforcements were brought up.

It was learned that a courier from the battleship reached General Pershing's field headquarters at Colonia Dublan late Thursday and the expeditionary commander's report is expected over the army wireless momentarily.

IMMEDIATE ACTION FOR MILITIAMEN

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 23.—Immediate action on the resolution authorizing President Wilson to draft into federal service all the National Guardsmen who are willing to take the oath under the new army law was asked today in the house by Chairman Hay of the military committee. He has offered an amendment declaring that an emergency for the draft now exists instead of leaving the question up to President Wilson.

Chairman Hay's amendment carried unanimously this afternoon after suspension of the rules. This declares that the emergency now exists.

ADDITIONAL SCHOOL MONEY MAY BE USED

Next Meeting of State School Board Will Take Up Matter of Additional $6 Per Capita.

(By Associated Press)

Austin, Texas, June 22.—At the next meeting of the state board of education, action may be taken looking to making an additional appropriation of $6 per capita for the public schools of the State. The entire apportionment of $6 per capita for the year has been paid out, and there are still three months in the present fiscal year.

The board has approximately $200,000 to the credit of the permanent school fund available for the purpose of new bonds. The board has already allotted the entire $500,000 available for this fiscal year of the $1,000,000 apportioned for rural schools in the State.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts Like Dynamite on a Sluggish Liver and You Lose a Day's Work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50c buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and cannot salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

Life's a game of give and take—with more takers than givers.

THE WISDOM OF GOOD ROADS.

One of the clearest cut statements we have ever seen on the wisdom of good roads is from the pen of Col. R. T. Milner, published in the Rusk County News. His statement is a complete analysis of the relation of good roads to the rural community and the propositions laid down hold good wherever good roads are built. Colonel Milner says:

"If the kind of roads that Rusk County proposes to make with a bond issue of $400,000 will not be worth the money, then they should not be built. Now, the best proof that good roads are worth what they cost is the fact that in countries that have had them the longest the sentiment is strongest for good roads. If good roads will do nothing but add burdens to the taxpayers as some good people seem to think, then we should not have them. In agricultural countries where they have good roads, agriculture is made more profitable by the simple fact that markets are created for things which the land produces, which did not exist until after the good roads came. For instance, we will take the town of Abilene. A few years ago the more enterprising citizens of that town and the immediate vicinity got it into their minds that dairying on a small scale would be a good thing to add to their good roads. So they induced the farmers all around to add a few cows extra to their herds, and each to supply himself with a cream separator. As soon as the farmers installed the business, motor trucks were also installed, and they run right to each farmer's gate every morning, and pay cash for the cream. But that is not all. These trucks have established a market for every chicken, turkey, egg and all the fruits and vegetables the farmer can spare. It is in this way that the price of land is enhanced, because it is worth more, and the more opportunities the renter has to earn money the easier it is for him to pay for land. In Iowa, where the condition for years has been what it is around Abilene, and land is worth all the way from one hundred to two hundred dollars per acre, the per cent of farm tenants is far less than it is in East Texas where good roads do not exist. The only reason why land is high in any country is because people want it and are willing to pay for it, and they have always paid the highest price for it in countries where it is insured the most desirable condition for the highest state of human happiness and civilization. It is our opinion that good roads will increase the rural traffic of this county fifty per cent in less than ten years, and furnish facilities to every farmer in the county for increasing his annual income far in excess of his road taxes."

SURE ENOUGH SCENERY.

The scenery in Collin County just at this time is hard to excel. The broad fields, checkered with shocks of golden wheat, and the steadily moving binders seen on every hand make one's heart fill with gratitude.—McKinney Examiner.

The hills have their majesty, the rivers their lure and the forests their appeal to the impressionable tourist. But the loveliest of all landscapes is a fertile plain checkered with ripening crops, dotted with green orchards and punctuated with farmsteads. The fruitful field, shaded cottage of the husbandman and the husbandwoman, the fatted stacks of fodder, the frisking calves and the grazing kine—these combine into a picture whose loveliness is incomparable and whose charm is for the heart as well as the eye. The lonely steeps of the Rockies are mostly barren; the sunshades gleaming like gold upon the azure sea at eventide are splendid beyond expression; the somber woods where the axman is stranger are mysteriously tempting, but all these are to the thoughtful witness but manifestations of nature running to waste. They afford visual or temperamental exhilaration, but they offer no nourishment to the body, they offer no romping children nor human interest. For these interests, which are our first interests, we must go back to the tilled lands, the mowed meadows, the corn rows, the kitchen gardens and the dooryards where slim wisps of smoke curl heavenward on wash day.—State Press.

The high character and strong personality of the opposing candidates for the presidency, is a guaranty of one of the cleanest, fairest and most dignified campaigns the country has ever witnessed.

JACKS.

A long time ago, while we were publishing a paper in a certain Eastern town, a portly gentleman with a grievance and a big walking stick dropped in to see us. We had innocently made a mistake in stating that his son Jack had met with a serious accident, as a result of which he was nursing three broken ribs and other internal injuries. It was his Jack that got hurt, all right, but not his son Jack.—Rule Review.

Well, if there were two Jacks in his family we don't see how the portly gentleman with the grievance and the big stick reasonably could take offense at the confusion you found yourself in. The irate subscriber should not have expected the editor to be acquainted with all the members of the subscriber's household and barnyard, too. Of course an editor sometimes does get acquainted with a lot of Jacks, but he can't know them all, or always guess which is entitled to be spelled with a capital letter. An editor, in fact, has quite enough to do without getting acquainted with all the live stock in his bailiwick. There was a time when every leading citizen knew every horse and mule in his community and could talk of them and recount their merits or demerits by the hour. But those days are gone. Even a close observer these days can hardly tell his own automobile from anybody else's, and in this town sometimes an unguarded auto is driven away by a total stranger.—State Press.

That knowledge that some men possessed in times ago of all the horses and mules in the community, their age, traits, characteristics, previous ownership and line of ancestry, was considered a great accomplishment. Every community had one or two men who possessed this information and they were looked upon as veritable oracles. These men could descant for hours upon the live stock of the community illustrating their remarks with frequent drawings in the sand with the end of a quirt handle showing peculiar brands, the locality where a certain "spoiled" horse pitched his rider into the next county, the course of a creek, where a blind trail crossed the "big road," etc. They never lacked for an audience either, as there was always a crowd who stood around open mouthed listening to the lecture on natural history. Another peculiarity about these live stock oracles was, they could not tell you the name of the governor of the state nor the birthday of half their children. But alas and alack, the horse and mule connoisseur is fast disappearing from the earth, put out of business by the constantly increasing encroachments of the automobile.

It is said one million Mexicans have pledged their readiness to Carranza to fight the United States in case of war. Carranza could not feed a million men twenty-four hours, much less furnish them with uniforms and properly equip them for service.

"Everyone win one" would be a good slogan for us to adopt now with respect to our schools. If the people of Bryan will do their best for the next two months we can bring more students here in September than the schools ever had before.

The Independent says the brief history of the progressive party proves that it is easier to start something than to keep it going.

With crop prospects as fine as they are, with new buildings going up on Main Street, with a world of street paving in progress and good roads being built in every direction, why can't we celebrate on July 4th with an old-fashioned, rousing big barbecue? With speaking by the county candidates and a few of the big guns, it would be a great day for us all. The coming together of the people, the fraternizing, the good fellowship and the pleasant social intercourse would be worth more than the cost.

There will be no second primary in Brazos County so far as the county candidates are concerned. The county democratic executive committee has ordered that a plurality shall elect. This is perfectly fair to all and saves a double assessment for holding a second election.

Make up your mind, young man, that you will hold your job only until a better man comes along to take it. When you get this fact firmly planted in your noodle, you will be worth something to your employer.—El Campo Citizen.

Remember, too, that the "better man" is just around the corner. He hasn't far to come. Know your work well. Do it cheerfully. That's the only way to win success.—Houston Post.

And as an aid to efficiency it is a good plan to be a self starter and not keep your eye on the clock nor the boss.

AN ASTONISHING RECORD.

When Judge Pierson spoke here last week, presenting astounding proofs of the reckless extravagance of Governor Ferguson's administration, he stated that anyone who desired to do so could secure a copy of these proofs, compiled from the records at Austin. In order that the people of Panola County might have the opportunity to inspect it the editor of the Register sent for a certified copy and anyone who desires to see it can have the privilege by calling at the Register office. It contains certified copies of forty-four accounts sworn to or approved by the governor and paid by the comptroller out of the people's money. For convenience these accounts are numbered. Following is a summary:

No. 1 is the expense account of the governor on his trip to New York to confer with the outlawed insurance companies in regard to the Gibson bill. It foots up $260.29. No. 2 is the expense account of C. C. McDonald, assistant attorney general, who accompanied the governor to New York. His bill is $251.00, which added to the governor's account, makes a total of $511.29.

No. 3 is the expense account of W. T. Potter, secretary of the board of engineers, on a trip to the Panama exposition. He visited Salt Lake, Grand Canyon, Denver and other pleasure resorts and spent $131.20.

No. 4 is a copy of the pay roll of the governor's household and shows that, in addition to salaries authorized by law, the "social secretary," chauffeur, house girl, cook, yard man and wash woman were paid out of the people's money.

No. 5 is a report of the fish and oyster commission, and shows that $1,782.50 was paid for two automobiles, after the attorney general had ruled that there was no authority of law for the purchase.

No. 6 shows that in the purchase of the State farms somebody got a rake-off of $50,000.

Nos. 7 to 25 are bills for fruits, vegetables, automobile fixtures, groceries, meats, butter, cream, eggs, oats, bran, hay, bread, cakes, candies, petroleum, etc., to be paid out of the appropriation of $2,000 for fuel, lights and incidentals, which went into effect in September and was exhausted in May, consequently they are running on a deficiency and the next legislature will be asked for an appropriation to cover it.

No. 41 is for the salary of W. H. Craddock for the month of January, 1916. He is paid $150 a month as the governor's "personal representative," a position that has no authority of law. In Austin he is known as "the deputy governor."

No. 43 is the expense account of Sam H. Dixon and wife to the Panama Exposition. On this junketing tour they spent $169.95 of the people's money.

No. 44 is the expense account of the State labor commissioner for one month and five days, showing hotel and restaurant bills amounting to $196.00.

That these expenditures are plainly in violation of the constitution of Texas and that the legislature transcends its authority when it makes appropriations for such purposes, is plainly stated by Chief Justice W. S. Fly of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals.

Colonel Roosevelt has tearfully handed to the executive committee of the progressive party his declination of the honor offered him by the party to make him its standard bearer for the presidency. He urged in his declination the support of Hughes by the progressives and his counsel was accepted and the executive committee now calls on all progressives to rally to the support of Hughes. The Bull Moose is now dead and the G. O. P. elephant will die on November 7. The Eagle moves that the body of the Bull Moose lie in state until that time when a double funeral shall be held for the twain and they be given Christian burial.

We suppose old Carranza is in Mexico City awaiting patiently an apology from this country the retrocession of Texas and other Western States and a check for $100,000,000 indemnity. And if he frowns at us and growls once or twice, maybe he will get them.—Houston Post.

Your inference is the Mexicans have our Uncle Woodrow queered. We own up that he has been exceeding slow to wrath, but our opinion still is, that when he gets his troops properly placed, he will strike with a fury that will make Sampson's wielding of the jaw-bone of an ass look like thirty cents.

The Spanish war veterans are tendering their services to the government. Large numbers of them have sent telegrams to President Wilson and Governor Ferguson that they were subject to call.

When Colonel Roosevelt witnessed the vanishing of his dream—the occupancy of the White House again—he became an old man in a night. All his old-time pep and ginger left him. His suave, buoyant, confident manner was gone and he became querulous and fretful. Infirmities of the body asserted themselves and the lion hunter of African jungles, and the explorer of the River of Doubt, went lame, decrepit and halting in step. We all love Roosevelt though for what he has been and can't help it. May the peace of heaven take the place of the tempest in his storm-tossed soul, and may the twilight fall sweetly and gently upon him in the lengthening shadows about Sagamore Hill.

News reached here that the United States revenue officers captured a big moonshine still and three barrels of malt about nine miles northwest of here. The officers destroyed the barrels of malt and shipped the still to Texarkana.—Mount Pleasant Journal.

So Texans have not yet learned that the justified spirits of the whiskey men are not the best drinking. Wonder how that sure enough malt whiskey would have tasted to some of these right good drinking men.—Houston Post.

What did they ship the still to Texarkana for? Have they commenced already to get ready for the meeting of the Texas Press Association there next June?

The Houston Post says by the end of 1917 all the money of the country will have been absorbed by "donations" to Billy Sunday and Charlie Chaplin's salary. There'll have to be a little left in Texas to pay the salaries of the patriots who are administering the permanent warehouse law.

Col. George Bailey of the Houston Post says some men believe the Mexican situation to be the most pressing problem confronting the world today, while there are others who believe their election as constable overshadows it.

To pick a full cotton crop, we must first pick up every fallen square possible and burn it to check the ravages of the boll weevils.

Carranza has acknowledged responsibility for the attack at Carrizal, but the acknowledgment did not start anything. Washington is now demanding the immediate release of the prisoners taken at Carrizal, and is also asking for a direct, clear-cut, unequivocal statement of the future course of the defacto government. At first thought it looks like an evasion of the issue by the Washington government, and yet it is doubtless the wise thing to do: The United States should be absolutely fortified with every principle of right, fairness and justice on its side before the first gun of real war is fired.

There is some talk that the Hon. Thos. B. Love is so chagrined over his recent contest that he has dedicated the remainder of his life to "cleaning up politics in Texas." Poor old Tom should remember there is no Euphrates River whose course he can divert through the Texas political stables.

The late unfortunate occurrence in Mexico does not alter the policy of the Washington government on the Mexican situation. The president is said to view the clash as an accident for which the subordinate commanders on both sides were responsible. That may be true, but one thing is certain, these particular subordinates will not be responsible for any more as both were killed.

One prominent Texas newspaper, the Waco Times-Herald, confesses that it can not see any "dishonor" in withdrawing the American troops from Mexico at this time, and asks: "Isn't our mission as to Villa at an end? Have we not given recognition to Carranza? Isn't our staying there a challenge of our good faith as to the defacto government? If intervention is to come, let's go at it straight and not in this round-about way." This is exactly in line with the opinion of the Dallas Democrat, which has consistently urged that the proper place for United States troops to "patrol the border" is on THIS side of the international boundary; not on the OTHER side.—Dallas Democrat.

The Times-Herald and the Democrat seem to be laboring under a misapprehension. Our troops in Mexico are not patrolling the border on the other side of the boundary line, but are hunting bandits who have marauded on this side of the boundary. Weeks ago when it seemed their mission was ended, The Eagle favored their withdrawal, but not now when Carranza is demanding it.

Ability involves responsibility. Power to its last particle is duty.—John Watson.

DR. BIZZELL MADE GREAT ADDRESS

Spoke to Great Audience at Baptist Church on the Church and Social Reform.

Sunday evening a vast throng of people gathered at the First Baptist Church to hear Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of A. & M. College, deliver an address on "The Relation of the Church to Social Reform." This was the third of the series of lay sermons being delivered by distinguished men of our county. Dr. Bizzell most eloquently and convincingly showed the need of social reform and pointed out the part the church should take in such reform. The ideas expressed by him should find lodgment and expression in the minds and lives of the people.

"I am in the habit," Dr. Bizzell declared, "of speaking to those who are held by military restraint. I had hoped I would have an audience here that would have perfect freedom, but the pastor informed me that in order to detain them the doors would be barred."

"I desire to say only those things that have a scriptural foundation," Dr. Bizzell then read from Mark 10:17-22, where the young man asked Jesus, "Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" Following Jesus' reply to this question, kindred passages were quoted reiterating the injunction to "love thy neighbor as thyself." In answer to the question, "Who is my neighbor?" the passage from Luke 10:25-37 was quoted relating the incident of the man who fell among thieves, was passed on either side by the priest and Levite, but was ministered unto by the Samaritan—thus illustrating the fact that any man who extends a helping hand to a fellow man is performing a social service and is really a neighbor.

"There are two distinct functions of the church. One is the regeneration of the individual; the other the renovation of society. The first is of great importance and is the duty of the Christian church. However, if we neglect the social renovation of society we handicap the progress of both church and state."

"The people of India know about Tammany Hall and the kind of politics we have there. Talk to them of religion and they will turn up their noses when they know of this. It is hard for them to see how Christianity and these things can go hand in hand in the same country. The people of China and Japan know of gross sins practiced in America and question our morals and the very soundness of Christianity. Then we say we do not see why these people are not Christianized."

"You sometimes wonder why there are so many who do not accept Christianity during a revival. Had you ever thought that the life you are living may be driving hundreds away from Christ and causing them to doubt the validity of Christianity?"

"What is the cause of poverty and crime? Many will say laziness is the chief cause of poverty and the breeder of crime. But many are born in poverty in the crowded tenement districts of our cities and under the present system can hardly help themselves. We attribute white slavery and many other evils to the low wages and insanitary conditions of the sweat shops of our cities. Social reform is beginning to regulate child labor, improve the conditions in factories and shops, abolish the white slave traffic, disperse ignorance and relieve poverty."

"Sympathy is the foundation of all social reform. We must have the welfare of humanity at heart. It is not enough to be grieved at existing conditions. One must have that sympathy that will cause him to strive for better social conditions."

"Human life is being considered of greater value. The child is receiving care and attention. Plato and Socrates favored infanticide as a means of disposing of weaklings, who did not promise to develop into robust, useful citizens. Many children were exposed in the mountains to die of hunger or be carried into slavery. Today we care for the frail little ones and try to develop them into useful citizens. We wonder at the cause of the children's crusade. But we find on investigation, that the children of this age received little parental care and attention."

"The Hebrew prophets were for social reform in the world. The Jewish prophets were social reformers speaking to their times. If you take the gospel of social reform these prophets taught you will find much of it suitable for the present day. Indeed some of the prophets describe present day conditions so strikingly one can almost believe he is reading the morning newspaper.

"Sociology as taught by some is apt to cause one to feel he should apologize for using the term. Sometimes it is a thing not to be desired. Why is this? The man who first introduced sociology wrote a book in which he left Christianity out. He taught that if you ministered to the suffering and helped the poor that was all you had to do. He left God out entirely, while some have an idea of God with Christ left out. You cannot separate Christ from your program of sociology and get by with it."

"There are three doctrines being taught that give us trouble. One says that the population of the earth would, if left unhindered, increase to such an extent that it would be impossible for all to live. Hence wars and great calamities are necessary to destroy some of the people and keep the population normal. That is a terrible thing. Christianity has taught us it is not true. There is another doctrine of the 'survival of the fittest.' Christianity says we shall help the weak to survive. There is another that says each improvement brings with it means of destruction—steamships, railways and airships will sink, wreck and fall, killing thousands. Each year sees these risks lessened. We will be wise enough some day to do away with these things. If we were to follow these teachings and leave out Christianity this would be a disgruntled world."

"The church must lead in social reform if social reform is to perform its real purpose in the world. That means that men in the church must have equipment to do these things. Man must be equipped for two things—he must have a vocation, be possessed of a bread-earning capacity; also he must be equipped to serve his fellow man. No man can ever accomplish anything worth while or reach the heights without doing much for humanity from which he does not expect to derive a cent. He must work for his church and state. He must do social service. Man cannot escape his relation to church and state."

"We need men who will do something definite for the uplift of their fellow men. I have prayed that I might not just be somebody in general—one of a great mass, who has done nothing to cause his name to be remembered by his fellow men. We need more men who are members of the church particularly—men who will render a social service to the world. I believe these teachings are true. If they are, we should follow them."

R. M. NALL ANNOUNCES.

By reference to The Eagle's announcement column today will be seen the name of R. M. Nall who announces as a candidate for the office of commissioner of Precinct No. 4, subject to the action of the July primary.

Mr. Nall has lived in Bryan for many years and is perhaps the best known citizen in the county, because of the public positions he has filled and the business positions held which brought him in contact with the people. There is scarcely a voter in the precinct who is not personally acquainted with him. Mr. Nall was for a number of years city marshal of Bryan, and sheriff of the county several terms. In both positions he made good and established for himself the reputation of one of the very best peace officers the State ever had. He is one of our best men and citizens, is progressive and stands for everything that makes for the development of the city and county, financially, morally, socially and educationally. He believes in good roads, good bridges, good schools and all things that add to the comfort and convenience of the people, or that will in any way aid them and be a help to them in their daily avocations. He believes in economy, however, and in the expenditure of the people's money, would spend it in such way as to give them the benefit of it and not be wasted on projects that benefit others who do not help to bear the tax burdens of the county.

Mr. Nall is a man of splendid business judgment and ability, is successful in his own affairs and well qualified to help in administering the business affairs of the county. If elected he promises the best and most faithful service he is capable of rendering.

The Eagle takes pleasure in submitting the name and claims of Mr. Nall to the democratic voters of Precinct No. 4.

He attended the common schools of his home community and later was a student in the A. & M. College. His education, and his long residence in the precinct, which gives him an intimate knowledge of all its affairs and its needs, well fit him for the duties of the office he seeks.

Mr. Stasney was formerly a member of the commissioners' court and filled the office with credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituents. The experience gained during his official term will be of material benefit to him now should he be elected.

Mr. Stasney is one of the county's industrious, hard working farmers, understands the needs of the farmers and believes himself capable of rendering valuable service in helping to manage the business affairs of the county. His friends also believe in his ability to make a good commissioner and it is at their earnest solicitation he is making the race.

FROM MINTER SPRINGS.

I am sending you some cotton bolls from Mr. G. W. Warren's field. I went all over his crop today and found extra good conditions prevailing. This is an upland crop, promising a yield of at least 35 bushels of corn per acre. Corn is now in full roasting ear and cotton is good. Garden vegetables, pumpkins and peas are luxuriant.

I also gave myself the pleasure of inspecting some of the Burleson County crops within the past few days. That of Mr. William Ettle is especially fine. He has 200 acres and has cotton which bids fair to yield a bale to the acre, and 50 acres of corn which looks good for 50 or 60 bushels per acre. There are plenty of vegetables; the onions deserve special mention, being extra large. Tomatoes are also very fine. There are pumpkins and cushaws in abundance and plenty of fat hogs to make meat for the farm another year. I told Mr. Ettle he ought to get married, but he blushed and said he was too old.

All crops are promising and, with the work on the road progressing fast, it will not take long to go and come from market when all these things are ready for the mill. Our county officials and promoters of the good road work will receive warm congratulations and highest praise when conditions now being worked for are completed.

Recently I visited Somerville, a little town of perhaps 5000 people. Among the 5000 I also found some old friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McCoy. Mr. McCoy has a fine car and we were given an opportunity to view the city and some of the surrounding country. The creosote plant is very interesting and keeps several hundred men employed. I suppose there was a million dollars worth of stock on the yards. Somerville has a nice two-story brick school building and good churches.

On my return home I found one of the friends of long ago, Mr. S. B. Gleason. We were schoolmates in old Mississippi when we were boys. Mr. Gleason has a fine farm highly cultivated. He is out of the way of overflowing rivers and his barn held plenty of last year's corn, Sudan hay and feterita grown on his own farm. At dinner there was the luscious old-fashioned home cured hams and jellies and preserves, prepared at home from last year's vintage.

It is well to study the methods and management of successful people. Hoping that every one may reap abundantly of the rich blessings now in sight, I am the well wisher and friend of everybody and The Eagle's Friend.

LITTLE JOHN OLIVER COVEY.

At 6:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon an angel of the Lord caught up the spirit of little John Oliver Covey, baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Covey, and the fair little flower of earth was translated to the home above to bloom forever in the gardens of Paradise.

For several weeks the baby had been ill, the greater part of the time its little life seemed to hang by a tiny thread, and through the long days and nights the sleepless vigils of father, mother and other loved ones never ceased and every tender care that could possibly be bestowed, was given the little sufferer. Death came at last to end his sufferings, and with him went the light and joy of his happy home, and sorrow and grief unspeakable came to dwell upon its hearthstone. God only can speak the healing word, and to Him the heartbroken parents are directed for consolation in this their dark, dark hour.

The baby was born July 6, 1914, and was 1 year, 11 months and 20 days of age at the time of its death. The funeral was held from the family home this afternoon at 4:30, Rev. C. T. Tally, pastor of the First Methodist Church, conducting the services.

The party reports a most delightful time, the trip being made in an automobile.

Everybody is invited and the committee in charge hopes that you will be there.

WALKER-HEAD SENTENCE GIVEN.

Net Penalty for Each of Defendants in Government Case Three Years and One Day and $1000 Fine.

Austin, Texas, June 22. Federal Judge Gordon Russell Wednesday passed sentence on E. E. Walker, former assistant quartermaster general of the Texas Guard, and George J. Head, former captain of the Brownsville Company F, Texas Guard, on conviction of charges alleging conversion of condemned military stores and supplies.

Walker was given two years and a fine of $500 on the charge of conspiracy to defraud, of which he was convicted on a plea of not guilty.

On pleas of guilty he was given one year and one day and $500 fine on one joint indictment charging embezzlement, and one year and one day and $100 fine on two other indictments, one charging embezzlement and theft. The sentence was made concurrent, making Walker's net sentence three years and one day and $1000 fine.

Head was sentenced to two years and a fine of $500 in the conspiracy to defraud case, and one year and one day and $500 fine in the joint embezzlement case. He pleaded not guilty in both cases. Another charge of embezzlement against Head was dismissed. The aggregate penalty is the same as given Walker.

Neither Walker nor Head as yet has given notice of appeal.

GUARDSMEN ARE ANXIOUS TO QUIT

Congressman and Senators Are Besieged With Requests That Are Useless.

Washington, June 22.—Texas representatives and both of the senators are receiving numerous requests from former Texas militia who are now a part of the regular army or from their relatives asking the congressmen to secure the discharge of these men from the service.

In order to ascertain the rules and regulations of the war department in such cases Senator Sheppard called upon Secretary Baker for a formal ruling and was informed that the judge advocate general holds the department is without authority of law to grant discharges where the only ground of discharge is the financial or personal interest of the enlisted man or of his dependent family or relatives. Where a man under age enlisted without the knowledge of his parents the case will be investigated with a view to release if the representations are found to be correct. When other grounds are presented the war department will take such action as the particular facts of each case may seem to warrant.

With the militia of practically all the States now under call to duty, the war department is going to be slow about releasing the enlisted men because of the bad example it would set and the blow it would deal to proper discipline. Just as the suggested court martialing of a number of the Texas National Guard was a step taken to instill respect for the militia, so is the determination of the war department not to grant wholesale discharges based upon a desire to increase the efficiency of the State militia.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Washington, D. C., June 24.—Last bulletin gave forecast of disturbance to cross continent June 27 to July 1. Warm wave 26 to 30, cool wave 29 to July 3. This will be a severe storm, causing general rains and severe weather. We have expected that temperatures from February to end of July would average lower than usual and therefore that the war wave would be only relative to the generally cool weather while the cool waves would cause unusually low temperatures.

Warm wave of above mentioned disturbance will cause higher than the usual temperatures of this month and the cool wave following will reach unusually low degrees. The severe storms of June began earlier than expected but, in a general way, we count on severe storms to the end of July.

Next storm wave will reach Vancouver near July 3 with rising temperatures all along the Pacific slope. It will cross crest of Rockies about July 4, plains sections 5, meridian 90 Great Lakes and Ohio valleys 6, eastern sections 7, reaching Newfoundland about July 8. Storm wave will follow about one day and cool wave two days behind warm wave.

Very cool weather will precede this disturbance, temperatures will rise rapidly and to high degrees for this season as the warm wave approaches your section, while the cool wave following will not go so low as the preceding cool wave. All features of this will be of greater than usual force and will increase as it approaches eastern sections.

We are expecting rains of July to be more excessive in the cotton states with less rain north of latitude 40. With such radical weather events due, of course the crops must suffer in some places, particularly on account of hail and too much rain, but comparatively these will be small in extent.

General prospects for the crops are good, but indications are that winter wheat and oats will be considerably damaged. We do not expect much hail in Canada and the spring wheat section of the middle northwest.

Of course the European countries now at war have agents in Canada and the States to look sharply after their grain interests. They and the big speculators in this country have a right to look well to their own interests and they will get the farmers' grain at as low prices as possible. We are with the farmers and want them to get all that is coming to them. After carefully studying the situation we are of the opinion that this is not the time to sell grain.

Mrs. Otto Ehlinger, wife of Dr. Ehlinger of the surgical department of the A. & M. College, returned last night from New York, where she has been the past year.

CITY COUNCIL GRANTS FRANCHISE

Bryan Telephone Company Is Granted Franchise to Do Business for the Next Twenty Years.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

At a meeting of the City Council of the City of Bryan yesterday afternoon a new franchise was granted the Bryan Telephone Company, its successors and assigns, which gives them the right to construct, reconstruct, extend, maintain and operate a telephone exchange in the City of Bryan for the next twenty years.

The new franchise is similar in many ways to the old one. However, some new features are brought out in the new one. The change of most importance was the telephone company furnishing ten telephones to the city free of charge for the first ten years of the grant and fifteen telephones free of charge after the first ten years of the grant, the telephone company agreeing to place and maintain these phones at such places as designated by the Council. The rates to be charged in the new grant are the same as in the old. Business phones $3.00 per month and residence phones $2.00 per month.

At the meeting of the Council Monday night the matter of the transfer track of the I. & G. N. and H. & T. C. was finally disposed of by a resolution being drafted giving the road a deed to their freight depot property and establishing lines for the new tracks to be laid and designating the width of streets to be allowed them for tracks and other matters that have been in controversy with the H. & T. C. officials.

DECHERD ANSWERED.

Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1916.
Hon. E. A. Decherd, Jr.,
Franklin, Texas.

Dear Sir:

On my return a few days ago from a ten days' absence from the district, I found that you had addressed another open letter to me on the subject of joint discussion of the issues in the senatorial race, and you insist that your platform is very different from mine, but you do not point out the material difference. Or any difference, in fact.

But, even if there are differences between us, that does not mean that the people are going to quit their work in the fields and come out to public speaking, and to ask them to do so would be to get the horse laugh.

I insist that there is nothing to be gained by joint discussion. If you wish to take the stump it is your privilege to do so. As for attending picnics, I already have some such gatherings in view that I expect to attend, and will attend others during the remaining few weeks of the campaign as I might find convenient to do so. Your proposition to go around with the candidates as they make their rounds is absurd, for they are not going around in droves in this end of the district, at least.

Again, I must decline to change my campaign to suit your wishes, and will continue as I started out to do, that is attend to my own campaign, and you are at liberty to do as you wish.

Respectfully,
N. P. HOUX.

PROPERTY CHANGES OWNERSHIP

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The J. M. Hanna & Son property on Ursuline Avenue has been sold to C. S. Beckwith, who will take possession of same on the first of the coming month. The property consists of a storehouse with a stock of groceries and school supplies, a nice residence and two vacant lots. The entire lot of property was transferred in the deal. Mr. Beckwith announced this morning that it was his intention to replenish the stock and at all times carry a complete and full line. We bespeak for the new owner much success, as he is a good hustler and a man who does business in an upright way.

PYTHIAN SISTERS MEET WITH KNIGHTS

Joint Entertainment Was Held Last Night With Chicken Supper, and Impromptu Program Given.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

About 75 Pythian Sisters, Knights of Pythias and their friends assembled at the K. of P. Hall last night at 8:30 o'clock and started a program with a big chicken supper which later proved to be one of the most enjoyable affairs that has been had in Bryan for a long time. There was plenty of chicken for every one as well as other edibles that go with this delicious dish to make a real dinner.

Mr. W. S. Wilson, Jr., acted as toastmaster and as no program had been arranged he was the program committee by himself and from reports today his selections were of the very best. Vocal solos, which were rendered in a most creditable way, were offered by Misses Aliene Rohde and Louise Caldwell. Instrumental music was rendered in a most pleasing manner by Miss Williams and others. After the musical part of the program the speech-making began. Several distinguished Knights were called upon for short talks and every one was fine. Matters pertaining to the good of the order were discussed, the social side of the lodge was talked of and things for the betterment of the Knights of Pythias lodge and its branches and for the City of Bryan were expounded in flowery language and with oratory equal to that of Plato or Aristotle.

Just before the close of the entertainment Mr. R. E. Robb of Houston, representing the Southwestern Paper Company, was introduced and rendered a few very enjoyable selections on his violin. At a late hour the party disbanded and will look forward with much anticipation for another opportunity to enjoy a similar entertainment to that of last night.

(By Associated Press.)

MRS. DREXEL GOT DECREE.

American Banker's Wife Allowed $50,000 Yearly in London.

London, June 22.—Mrs. Rita Armstrong Drexel, wife of Anthony J. Drexel, the American banker, was given judgment against her husband Wednesday for a yearly allowance of $50,000 by Justice Neville in the chancery court.

Mrs. Drexel separated from her husband in 1911 while they were living in London. Divorce proceedings were dropped when the separation agreement was entered into, by which Mrs. Drexel was to receive an annual sum of $50,000 and five policies on the life of her husband, aggregating $300,000, which were to be assigned to a trustee and held for her benefit in event of the banker's death.

In July, 1915, Mr. Drexel filed a suit for a divorce in Paris and stopped the allowance to his wife. The present suit was the sequel to this action.

NEW ABSTRACT COMPANY.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Mr. J. M. Lee of Dallas has arrived in Bryan and has opened an office with District Clerk J. W. Barron and will do a general abstract business. Mr. Lee is with the old Hudson Abstract Company, whose name they have changed to the Prazos County Abstract Company, and will have charge of the abstract department of the firm. Mr. Lee is not a student in his line of work, as he has been in the business for thirty years and is an expert in his line. Judge Hudson is to be congratulated upon having secured the services of Mr. Lee, as he comes to our city recommended very highly as a good citizen. His family will arrive in about two weeks and they expect to make Bryan their home.

WAGNER BUILDING BEING IMPROVED

Building Will Be Made Three Stories Instead of Two and Will Be Put Down on Street Grade.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Contractor T. B. Hubbard yesterday started a large force of workmen tearing out the front and lower floor of the A. J. Wagner Building on the corner of Bryan and West Anderson streets. The building, which is now two stories with the lower floor about seven feet above the street level, will be changed to a three story structure and the lower floor will be on a level with the street grade. A new and modern front will be put in the building, the walls will be underlined with concrete and when completed Mr. Hubbard says it will be a nice modern three story building and on one of the best corners in the city. New floors will be put in and with the sidewalk running along between the corner property and the Elks Club on a level with the street it will change the looks of this section of the city, making it much nicer. Mr. Wagner, when asked who would occupy the lower floor of the newly constructed storehouse, said that he was not in a position to say right at present.

GERMANS CLAIM RUSSIANS DRIVEN BACK

Desperate Fighting on Russian Front With Teutons Struggling Hard to Hold Slavs in Check.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 21.—The Russians who crossed the Styr River west of Kolki, were driven back in a counter attack, the Germans claim today. Northwest of Lutsk the Russians strongly resisted the German advances. With the Austrian rear guard closely engaging them, the Russians have crossed the River Serets. The Austrian statement says in the Lekatch district southeast of Valdimir, the capture of thirteen hundred Russians was reported.

A violent attack on the trench positions northwest of Rheims was made by the Germans last night at Hill 108 in the direction of Berry-au-Bac. According to the French statement the French artillery fire repulsed the attack.

Austrian Army Cut in Two.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 21.—Confirmation of the reports of the cutting in two of General Pflanzer's army in Bukovina, was contained in a dispatch to the Star from Petrograd. It was occasioned by the attempt of the Austrians to retreat in two directions to reach the fortified line south from Czernowitz before the Russians. The Russian General Letchitzky, however, reached the line at the same time, cutting in two the Austrians.

German Aviator Killed.

BROWNWOOD POSSE KILLED MEXICAN

Had Attacked White Lady as She Slept, Inflicting Painful Wounds With Knife.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Brownwood, Texas, June 21.—Geronimo Lerma, the Mexican suspected of assaulting with a knife Mrs. W. U. Kuykendall while she slept here early Tuesday, was found by a posse about 10 miles from here and immediately shot to death.

Mrs. Kuykendall, wife of a local lumberman, was slashed about the head and breast with a large butcher knife in the hands of Lerma, a young Mexican employed as a servant in the family, as she slept about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. Although she probably will recover, she will lose one eye and be disfigured for life, physicians say.

The Mexican was an orphan and had been taken into the family as a servant some time ago, while the Kuykendall family lived at Harlingen, Texas. It was believed that he had become incensed over reading Mexican war news, which was accentuated by associations with local Mexicans.

WAR COMES TO BE COMMONPLACE

A Woman Writer at Vienna Says It Has Come to Be Almost the Normal Condition.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Vienna, June 23.—The general state of belligerency in Europe has not only modified the material course of life, but has had such an influence on the psychology of the public that after two years, a state of war has become an almost normal condition, according to a woman contributor of a prominent Polish newspaper.

The constant presence of the thought that war is the great condition of the day, and to win it the prime objective, has in the course of the past few years given a secondary place to the interests of the masses, she said, so that now the loss of relatives on the battlefield is no longer associated with the self of a person but with the will of the aggregate to win. For this also sacrifices of a material nature are made, whose rendering no other cause or demand could hope to achieve.

While the war is not as yet looked upon exactly as a normal state in which a continent ought to find itself, there is a striking stoic indifference about it, in many respects. There is of course still a keen desire that peace may come soon, but coupled to it inseparably is a grim determination to show that the central power group cannot be effaced.

Fine weather and reassuring crop reports from all parts of the empire have served to heighten the impression here that all is well. Vienna and Budapest are close to their habitual tendency to look upon life as a thing to be enjoyed to the full, even if bread tickets and two meatless days per week must be taken into account. This has gone so far as to cause the resurrection of a 90-year-old French opera, and permit a merry interest in the presenting to a favorite singer by an admirer of a parrot made of solid gold. The precious bird is life-size and was handed over the footlights.

For two years everybody has been preaching the gospel that one must die one way or another, and that a little sooner or later does not make a great difference. Association with this idea has been a blessing to many, and its reiteration has had its effect upon the psychology of the masses, so that today it is accepted as an obvious inevitability to meet death on the firing line. The condition in question is said by some to have strong similarity to the views of the ancient world on human sacrifices when these were the practice and when its victims were drawn from the population when other sources failed.

WOULD ORGANIZE VOLUNTEER CORPS

Fred Righter of San Antonio Would Organize Civilian Volunteer Engineering Corps.

(By Associated Press.)

Austin, Texas, June 22.—Organization of a civilian volunteer engineering corps, for service of the field in case of necessity, is proposed to Adjutant General Henry Hutchings by a number of leading Texas civil engineers, headed by Fred Righter of San Antonio and Austin. It was represented to General Hutchings that there are many engineers throughout the State who are ready and anxious to form such a corps.

The plan contemplates the formation of a civil volunteer brigade for Texas with one officer of the regular army engineering corps as an advisory head. Training will not interfere with private business and will follow as closely as possible instructions as approved by engineers of the regular army. The matter is under consideration.

The defense is represented by Judge V. B. Hudson and Attorney T. R. Batte, the State by County Attorney Lamar Bethea.

COLD STORAGE FOR POULTRY

Allen Smith Plans Cold Storage Plant in Keeping With His Large Poultry Shipping Business.

Our enterprising and never tiring groceryman, Allen Smith, has drawn his plans for a cold storage plant for the City of Bryan that will equal those in the larger cities of the State. This gentleman proposes to invest about $5000 in the new enterprise that will take care of his immense poultry shipping business. The cold storage plant proper will have a capacity of five cars. The equipment has already been contracted for but the location of the plant has not been definitely decided upon. However, it will be conveniently located on Main Street. The new plant will be electrically operated and Mr. Smith hopes to have same in operation in the early fall so as to take care of his immense turkey business.

Doubtless few people are aware of the fact that Mr. Allen Smith is one of the largest wagon poultry buyers in the entire State. He buys and ships more chickens than any firm between Dallas and Houston. In the past two weeks he has shipped two solid cars of chickens, which constituted several thousand. Each day's express carries a few hundred fowls out of this city that Mr. Smith has bought here and that are shipped here from adjoining counties.

This is a man who does business on a big scale and is a great help to the farmers as well as the town people, as he is always ready to pay the highest market price for the products of the producer.

RETURNS FROM LOUISIANA.

L. M. Levinson, local manager for the Bryan and College Interurban and the Bryan and Central Texas Interurban, who has been in Louisiana for the past two weeks, returned home yesterday afternoon. Mr. Levinson has just recently been appointed manager for an interurban line in Louisiana, and has been there getting things started off.

SINGING CONVENTION.

Notice to the Singers and Choirists of Brazos County.

You are urgently requested to bring all your song books to the Singing Convention which meets with the Harvey choir next Saturday and Sunday, July 1 and 2. All choirists are especially urged to bring their choir books. Plenty of books means plenty of good singing. Mark all books plainly and they are not apt to be lost. J. C. CLOUD, President.

NOTICE TO CONTESTANTS.

Final Word About the Short Course Scholarships Contest.

The Bryan club women are preparing to make a gala event of the closing day of their scholarship contests on next Friday, June 30, and it is their desire that the people of Bryan and Brazos County manifest a real interest in the occasion by being present in great numbers.

All exhibits to be judged for the scholarships, together with the official score cards on eggs and chickens will be displayed on the ground floor of the court house, and as the contestants have been asked to have their displays ready for the judges by 10:30 a. m., the public is invited to call any time after that hour.

At 11 o'clock, in the district court room upstairs, the women and girls of Bryan and Brazos County (the gentlemen also are invited) will be addressed by Miss Bernice Carter, and Mrs. Nat P. Jackson, of the extension department of A. & M. College, two of the most interesting women speakers in Texas. They will talk of the problems in home making, the home life in general and particularly, in fact of woman's work in the world, and all who hear them will be pleased and profited.

At this hour also the scholarships awarded by the Bryan Woman's Club to the successful contestants in five different contests will be presented to the winners. The scholarships include tuition and board at the summer short course at A. & M. College, beginning July 24, and are indeed prizes well worthy the efforts put forth to win them.

At the close of the exercises at the court house all the contestants will be entertained at luncheon at the New York Cafe, after which a picture show party will be given them at the Dixie Theatre.

Delay always heeds danger.—Cervantes.

WEEVIL THREATENS $30,000,000 LOSS

Large Per Cent of Damage Can Be Prevented if Farmers Will Use Precautions.

BY T. O. WALTON.

Chief Farm Demonstration Work, Extension Service, A. & M. College.

Last fall the extension service and United States department of agriculture called the attention of the Texas farmers to the boll weevil situation then existing, and suggested that unless all the stalks were turned under or cut and burned early and the winter hibernating places destroyed there would be a very heavy infestation of the weevil in 1916. Many of the farmers profited by these suggestions, many of them, however, did not, and at this time the boll weevils are making their appearance in practically all of the States except the extreme southwestern part of the Texas cotton belt. Without doubt we have the heaviest infestation of weevils coming out of winter hibernation this spring that we have had for a number of years, and if the cotton growers do not observe every precaution the damage of the 1916 Texas cotton crop will probably be 500,000 bales. At the present price of cotton this will represent a direct loss to Texas farmers of $30,000,000 for the 1916 crop. A large per cent of this loss can be prevented if the farmers in the weevil infested territory will use the precautions advocated in the United States department of agriculture and the extension service of the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

At the present time, while the cotton is yet very small, some of it without squares and some just beginning to set squares, the farmer will find it profitable, provided cheap labor can be secured, to have the weevils hand-picked and killed, and all punctured squares picked and burned. One adult weevil or one square that has young weevils growing on it, destroyed now, will mean several thousand weevils less within the next few weeks.

Intense Cultivation suggested.

After the cotton has reached a height of about 14 to 18 inches, and is beginning to fruit rapidly, it may not be found profitable to continue the practice of hand-picking, but even after this time the farmer should continue intensive cultivation, shallow cultivation, using either a brush or stick attached to his cultivator in such a way as will agitate the stalks, causing the punctured squares to more readily fall to the ground, where if left so that the sun can strike them, a large per cent will dry up, thus destroying the young weevils. This rapid, shallow cultivation should continue until cotton begins to open. Such cultivation will serve a double purpose: First, it will conserve the moisture and keep the cotton fruiting rapidly through a long period of drouth; second, it will enable the farmer to agitate the plants so that many of the squares will fall to the ground and be destroyed as described above.

Unless farmers do pick the weevils and punctured squares at this time the young cotton will not be able to set any fruit until such time as we may have sufficient hot, dry weather to check the depredation of the weevil. If the rapid, shallow is not continued until late in the season the vitality of the plant will be so reduced that during the hot dry weather the plant will be unable to set fruit. Therefore, the cultivation becomes the second most important factor in dealing with the weevil problem at this particular time.

Hot Sunshine Only Remedy.

It is well for us to continually bear in mind that after our fields once become infested with the weevil the hot sunshine is about the only remedy for this pest. This being the case, if we are to make a crop after the hot weather really sets in earnest it will be necessary for us to keep up the cultivation in order to conserve all the moisture possible.

Specialists and others in investigating the work of boll weevil control have advocated different methods as important, but it is a demonstrated fact that farmers who have made the most marked success in growing cotton under weevil conditions are the farmers who have followed very closely the cultural methods and practices outlined in this circular.

We would have it understood that this advice is intended to meet present conditions and that it is not intended to displace our suggestions in regard to destruction of stalks and other hibernating places, deep fall breaking and other measures of control heretofore advocated.

Forgiveness is better than revenge.—Pittacus.

ITALIANS HAVE AUSTRIANS GOING

Have Driven Them Back for Twenty Miles—No Material Change on Verdun Front.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 26.—In a night attack the French captured part of the German trenches from the Fumen and Chenois wood in the Verdun sector. The German attack west of Thiamont was repulsed, according to the French official statement. A heavy artillery duel is progressing west of the Meuse.

A general retreat of the Austrians to the Trentino district over a sector of twenty miles was announced in the home official statement issued by the war office today. The statement says the Italians are pressing closely.

VISITORS FROM CALDWELL.

Mrs. A. E. Lane, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Eckhart and children and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lane and children of Caldwell motored to Bryan yesterday afternoon and spent a few hours with Mrs. Lane's sister, Mrs. T. N. Herring, on East Lamar Street. Mrs. Herring and little son returned home with them for a three days' visit.

TO REMAIN IN BRYAN.

Announcement was made in The Eagle last week that Mrs. J. M. Hanna had sold her business on Ursuline Avenue to C. S. Beckwith. Mrs. Hanna announced this morning that the family would not leave Bryan. Lawrence Hanna will teach the coming session of the Leonard School at that place, Miss Blanche will teach at Steep Hollow and Miss Bernice will teach in the Parker School.

ATTENDING COURT IN FRANKLIN.

Hon. W. C. Davis, district attorney for the Twentieth Judicial District, left last night for Franklin, where he will attend the district court of Robertson County. He will be gone four weeks on this mission.

A NEW BUICK SIX.

J. Groginsky slipped away from Bryan the later part of last week mysteriously and went to Waco. It seems that no one knew what the mystery was about until yesterday when he was seen with his family in a big new six-cylinder Buick which he brought from Waco with him.

HAND CUT IN FAN.

George Brandon happened to quite a painful accident Saturday when he got his hand caught in a buzz fan. Mr. Brandon says he has always heard that buzz fans would not cut you if you stuck your hand in them, but that he knows they will now, and that from experience. The cut was dressed and his friends will be glad to know that the injured member will be well in a few days.

LONESOME OUT OF JAIL

The city officers arrested a negro by the name of Harrison last week for being drunk and on yesterday morning some of his friends came to his rescue and paid his fine. He was released and in less than three hours he was drunk again and got in an argument with the law about being locked up the first time and was carried back to sober up again.
